

ROUNDTABLE

Theorizing Fascism through Ethnography: Anthropological Insights for Today's Political Landscape.

Monday 2nd february 2026 – 17:30-19:30 CET

Sala Lauree grande blu | Campus Luigi Einaudi
Lungo Dora Siena 100, Torino

Follow on-line

<https://unito.webex.com/unito/j.php?MTID=m1638bc76f2dfb3a2d4a07d7defb9b11e>

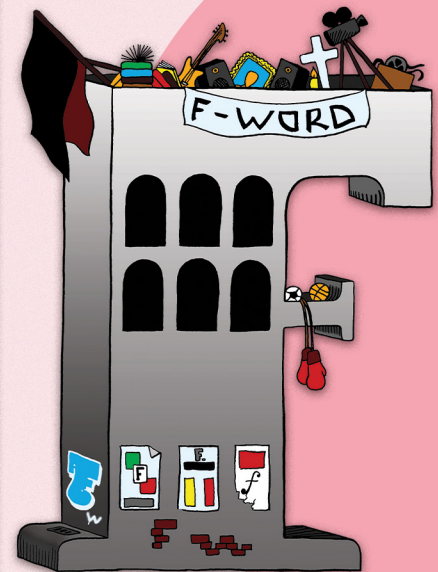

Introducing: Maddalena Gretel Cammelli (University of Torino, ERC F-WORD, EASA AnthroFa)

Chair: Elena Miltiadis (Durham University, EASA Anthrofa)

- Olga Demetriou (Durham University), Antonis Ellinas (University of Cyprus): Memory Work: Exploring the ethnography of far-right memory contestation and appropriation.
- Wassim Ghantous (Tampere University): The rise of the Israeli war machine.
- Agnieszka Pasieka (University of Montreal): Understanding fascism collectively.

Discussant: Nicolas Petel-Rochette (Université du Québec à Montréal, EASA AnthroFa)

Organizing Committee

(ERC F-WORD and Network Anthropology of Fascisms EASA AnthroFa)
Maddalena Gretel Cammelli (University of Torino); Elena Miltiadis (Durham University); Nicolas Petel-Rochette (University of Quebec in Montreal); Marco Bernardi, Chiara Calzana, Chiara Magliacane, Marta Panighel, Gabriele Vitale (University of Torino).

UNIVERSITÀ
DI TORINO

